THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, October 27th, 1746. [Numb. 654]

LONDON, May 20.

WE hear that the Eſtates of the Heads of the Rebels taken in Scotland, will be forfeited to the Crown, but his Majeſty has been pleaſed in order that the Eſtates of thoſe who have been killed, ſhould deſcend to the next Heir.

The City of London hath made a Preſent of 4000 l to the Soldiers who were in the Battle of Culloden Muire; and ſeveral of the Scots Nobility have likewiſe made them handſome Compliments.

We think it will be neceſſary to inform our Readers of the Pride and Vanity of the French King, with Reſpect to the Money taken lately on board the Hazard Snow of War, as it was going to ſupply the Rebels in Scotland; theſe Pieces having the French King's Head on one Side, and on the Reverſe the Arms of France, encompaſs'd in theſe Words, "Charles, Prince Regent of Scotland."

June 3. By Letters from Copenhagen we are informed, that the King of Denmark has gratified one Colonel de Virgas, a Saxon Gentleman, with a Preſent of 3000 Ducats, has taken him into his Service, in the Rank of a Major-General of the Train, with an Allowance of a yearly Penſion of 2000 Crowns, on account of his having made a Diſcovery of his Invention of making light Pieces of Cannon, with a particular Metal hitherto unknown, and which, on all Manner of Examination, has been found to anſwer whatever has been expected from it.

Whitehall, June 14. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Earl of Stair, Field Marſhal of his Majeſty's Forces, to be General over all and ſingular the Marine Forces, imployed or to be employed in his Majeſty's Service.

London, June 26. When Lord Lovat was taken, he had, not about him, but among his Effects, a Commiſſion from the Pretender, of Lord Lieutenant of the Northern Counties, and a Patent for creating him Duke Frazer.

Whitehall, June 28. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Sir John Ligonier, Knight of the Bath, to be General and Commander in Chief, of all his Majeſty's Britiſh Forces, and thoſe in his Majeſty's Pay in the Auſtrian Netherlands.

July 12. We are are aſſured that the laſt Regiment deſigned for the ſecret Expedition embark'd this Day; Gen. Sinclair ſet out for Portſmouth this Morning at Eleven o'Clock, attended by upwards of 150 Volunteers.

London, July 5. The Court of Vienna has declared War againſt the Genoeſe.

July 15. We hear that ſeveral Regiments more will embark for Flanders the latter End of the next Week; and that the Duke of Cumberland, who is to be convoy'd over by Admiral Anſon, will make a Campaign there; and that an Ambaſſador will be ſoon ſent to Holland.

Our Letters from Turin inform us, that his Sardinian Majeſty has a Body of 18000 Men ready to enter the Marquiſate of Final, while an Engliſh Squadron acts upon the Coaſts; and that another Corps of his Troops is about to attack the Dominions of Genoa on the Side of Savona, ſo that it is not to be doubted but that the Republick muſt ſubmit, and ſpeedily too, to ſuch Terms as ſhall be preſcribed to her.

On Sunday ſeveral of the Domeſticks belonging to the Right Hon. the Earl of Albemarle ſet out for Edinburgh, that Nobleman being appointed Commander in Chief of the Forces in Scotland, in the Abſence of the Duke of Cumberland.

From Vienna we learn, that ſome Deputies are actually arrived there from Genoa, to implore their Imperial Majeſty's Favour, or at leaſt Compaſſion, towards the Republick.

July 17. This Week the Marquis of Tabernaci, a Spaniſh Nobleman, who has reſided here ſeveral Years, being obliged to leave Spain for his Attachment to the preſent King, when Prince of Aſturias, ſets out from his Houſe in Bond-ſtreet, on his Return to that Kingdom. He had a Penſion of 500 l. per Annum from this Court during his ſtay here. And next Week Benjamin Keene Eſq; Member of Parliament for Weſtlow in the County of Cornwall, many Years Reſident at the Court of Madrid, and lately appointed Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Portugal, will ſet out for that Court, his Equipage and Baggage being ordered to be got ready with the utmoſt Expedition.

Edinburgh, July 12. Yeſterday the Earl of Kellie ſurrender'd himſelf to the Lord Juſtice Clerk, and was committed Priſoner to the Caſtle of Edinburgh. By which he ſaved his Attainder.

London, July 19. The Maſhal Duke de Noailles, who was to have ſet out for the King of Sardinia's Head Quarters, with full powers from their moſt Chriſtian and Catholick Majeſties to conclude a Peace on what Terms he thought reaſonable, being retarded by the King of Spain's Death, it is believed all his long Negociation at Madrid, from whence the French promiſed themſelves ſo much, is likely to vaniſh into Smoke, which will give a great Blow to the French Affairs.

It is certain, that notwithſtanding all the pains taken by the French King to diſtinguiſh, by repeated Favours and continual Praiſes, the Marſhal Count de Saxe, the prejudices againſt him and the Count Lowendahl his Coadjutor are ſo ſtrong, that many People of the beſt Senſe at Paris believe they will not ſerve longer than this Campaign; and ſome go ſo far as to ſay, the latter has already engaged to ſerve in Quality of Field Marſhal to a certain Prince in Germany.

July 22. Letters from Paris ſay, that a ſecret Agent is arrived there from the Court of Pruſſia, but that his Buſineſs was not generally known.

His preſent Catholick Majeſty, Don Ferdinand VI. declared in the firſt Council of State he held, his Reſolution to adhere to the true Intereſts of Spain, to endeavour to reſtore Peace to his Subjects as ſoon as he could, and to redreſs all the Grievances they complain of.

July 31. They write from Peterſburgh, that M. D'Allion having lately received a Courier from Verſailles, we are aſſured he has told our Miniſters, 'That his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has been much ſurprized to hear, that, according to the general Report, the numerous Troops which the Empreſs has aſſembled for ſome Time paſt upon the Frontiers of Poland, were deſigned to act offenſively againſt France, in Favour of the Courts of Vienna and London, notwithſtanding the repeated Declarations of his Miniſters, concerning his Majeſty's Diſpoſition to accept the Mediation offered by Ruſſia for an Accommodation, while the Courts both of London and Vienna had abſolutely refuſed to liſten to her Imperial Majeſty's pacifick Intentions. It is not yet known what Anſwer was given to this Miniſter.

York, July 29. When his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland paſs'd through this City, who came ſooner than was expected, he was received with that Duty and Affection which becomes every Subject of this Kingdom. The City was illuminated from one End to the other, and the Concourſe, and Acclammations of the Populace were never equall'd in Memory.

His Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to accept a Collation, provided for him by the Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and the Freedom of the City preſented to him in a Gold Box, introduced by a handſome Speech, made by the Recorder ſuitable to the Occaſion.

The

The Judges upon the Circuit likewiſe paid their Compliments to his Royal Highneſs and the Archbiſhop, accompanied by the Dean and Gentlemen in Reſidence, received his Royal Highneſs at Mr. Precentor's Houſe, whom his Grace with his uſual Eloquence, addreſſed in the following Manner.

PERMIT me, Sir, in the Name of my Brethen, the Clergy of this Diocеſs and Province, (the King's ever-faithful Subjects) to teſtify to your Royal Highneſs their exceeding Joy at your Happy and Victorious Return out of the North. I want Words to expreſs the Fulneſs of our grateful Hearts on this Occaſion, and therefore I ſhall not attempt it. —Your Conduct, Royal Sir, has been Glorious: and tho' the Things you have done for the Nation are ſingularly great, your Manner of performing them is ſtill more to be admired. You have reſtored the publick Tranquility at a very critical Seaſon, and done it, Sir, as became your high Character in every amiable Light.

Courage is almoſt natural to a young Prince, and is inherent in your Royal Blood; Activity and Induſtry are often conſtitutional; but to plan a great Deſign maturely, at a perilous Conjuncture, to execute it with all the Coolneſs, Caution, and Providence of an old General, actuated with the Fire and Exertion of a young One, to uſe Moderation and Modeſty in Succeſs, and in the Midſt of Victory (where obdurate Perfidy did not call for exemplary Puniſhment) to treat unnatural and unprovoked Rebels to the beſt Government in the World, as deluded Subjects —— Theſe are Things, Sir, which Truth obliges me to ſay (though unpolitely in the Hearing of your Royal Highneſs) ſhew the Greatneſs of your Underſtanding and the Goodneſs of your Heart, which make every Subject of Great Britain not only admire, and love, and ſerve you, as the Son of their Royal Maſter, and the Brother of their beloved Prince, but truſt and depend upon you, as the happy Inſtrument of Heaven to ſave and protect and raiſe the Honour of the Nation.

Go on as you have begun, Great Sir, in the Paths of Virtue and true Glory; and may the good Providence of God always go along with you, direct all your Counſels, cover your Head in the Day of Battle, and, as you fight the Cauſe of Truth and Liberty, give uninterrupted Succeſs to all your Undertakings.

London, Aug. 2. The Plan of the preſent unnatural Rebellion, and the ſecret Meaſures taken by the Diſaffected in London, Weſtminſter, &c. to carry it into Execution, begins to open. 'Tis ſaid it hath already been diſcovered that during the courſe of ſix Years there has been raiſed in this Kingdom no leſs than 700,000 l. for the Service of the Pretender, 400,000 l. ſince the beginning of this Rebellion, and that 170,000 l. of the laſt mentioned Sum, has, during this Winter, been raiſed within the City of London, and Weſtminſter, and parts adjacent. It is alſo ſaid, that 1400 Names have been diſcover'd of thoſe who ſubcribed to it, ſeveral of whom are Perſons of Note. And we hear that Warrants are iſſued out againſt a great many Perſons for receiving Money for the ſupport of the late Rebel Army.

This Week —— Biſhop, Eſq; and an Apothecary, near the Strand, were taken into Cuſtody of a Meſſenger, on Suſpicion of treaſonable Practices. And we are informed that near twenty of his Majeſty's Meſſengers have been diſpatch'd into divers Parts of the Country, to take into Cuſtody ſeveral Perſons impeach'd of High Treaſon.

We hear that a Bill will be brought into this Parliament for naturalizing all foreign Proteſtants.

We hear that the Marquis of Tabernael, the Spaniſh Nobleman who reſided here ſome Years, and ſet out this Week for Spain, had ſeveral Conferences with ſome great Men here before his Departure. And that the Right Hon. the Earl of Sandwich will be ſent Ambaſſador Extraordinary to their High Mightineſſes the States General of the United Provinces, on Affairs of the laſt Importance to the Welfare of this Nation in particular, and Europe in general.

Several Meſſengers are ſent down to Wales to bring up ſome ſuſpected Perſons from that Principality.

Letter from Portſmouth, Auguſt 2.

Yeſterday came to St Helens, the Lyon Man of War, and joined Admiral Leſtock, whoſe Fleet now conſiſts of the following Ships of War, viz.

Princeſs	Guns 70	Hastings	40
Devonſhire	80	Sapphire	40
Edinburgh	70	Lyon	82
Tilbury	60	Mortar Bomb, and
Superbe	60	Scipio Fireſhip.
York	60

Auguſt 4. They write from the Hague, that the Reduction of Charleroy was owing to an indiſcreet ſally of the Garriſon, who being repulſed by the Beſiegers, gave them an Opportunity of entering pell-mell with the Troops into the Town.

They write from Leghorn of the 24th of July, N. S. that two Engliſh Men of War were arrived there from a Cruize in the Levant, and brought in nine Prizes, three of which carried Genoeſe Colours.

On Tueſday Admiral Leſtock, in the Princeſs Man of War, with 10 Sail of Men of War, and all the Tranſports ſailed from St. Helens for Cape Breton.

By private Letters from Hamburgh we learn, that his Daniſh Majeſty died ſuddenly at Copenhagen on the 6th of this Month.

The French King has given Orders for demoliſhing Mons and Charleroy.

Yeſterday about One o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Court of Lord Mayor, Alderman, and Committee of Council, went in a grand Proceſſion to Kenſington, and preſented his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland with the Freedom of this City in a Gold Box, on which was curiouſly engraved the Arms of the City of London; and his Royal Highneſs received the Compliment with that good Nature, for which he is particularly remarkable.

Auguſt 16. Tueſday next is the Day appointed for the Meeting of the Congreſs at Breda, for ſettling the Preliminaries in order for a General Peace. The Earl of Sandwich it's ſuppoſed got there on Sunday laſt.

London, May 31. The Dobbs-Galley and California paſs'd by Yarmouth, under the Convoy of the Loo, of 40 Guns, on their Voyage to find out the N.W. Paſſage by Hudſon's Streights.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 27

Laſt Week arrived here a Veſſel from Louiſbourg, on Cape-Breton, and another from New England, by which we have confirmed Accounts of the Arrival of a French Fleet of Men of War and Tranſports at a Harbour called Jebucto near Cape Sables; that it conſiſted of about 60 Sail; That the Hynd Man of War had taken one of the French Tranſports, with Naval Stores, &c. for a 32 Gun Ship at Quebeck; That the People of New England were prepar'd for a vigorous Defence in Caſe they ſhould be attack'd; That they were under no Apprehenſions at Louiſbourg; and that Admiral Leſtock was not yet arriv'd on the 8th Inſtant.
